Automation Testing Experience with Blaise

Gayu Subramanian and Rittu Jittu, Westat

Automation testing provides many benefits to projects that include time and cost savings, efficiency with regression testing, and consistency across test runs. It also provides better scalability and analysis reports on test coverage. We will review our experiences using various automation solutions with Blaise 4.8 and 5. Discussion includes framework, integration tools, and demos, along with the advantages and disadvantages of the different approaches investigated.